Figure S4. Definition of interconnected feedback loops. In the heat shock response system, modules are connected to $\sigma^{32}$ using interconnected loops. (A) A typical example of interconnected feedback loops in the heat shock response. (B) A, B, and C modules do not form interconnected loops.