S9 Fig. Interaction map between 152 compounds (rows) and 138 kinases (columns) profiled in the study of Metz et al. The white cells represent unmeasured binding affinities. The higher the pKᵢ value, the stronger the affinity between the compound and kinase.