

DNA phosphorous atom B-factors were computed from the last 50 ns of the intact and tail-truncated nucleosome simulations (Fig. S1) [48,49]. Small B-factor differences between intact and tail-truncated nucleosome simulation are observed at specific nucleotide positions where the truncated histone tails contact the DNA in the intact nucleosome.