

Supplementary Figure 5 – Normalised deformation energies (calculated over all non-trivial normal modes). Red shows high deformation energies, while blue shows low energies, with white as the intermediate values. Scale ranges from low (blue) to intermediate (white) to high (red) normalised values of the deformation energies.