Figure S12: The cumulative distribution of p-values from naive tests of association between the 79 AFLP markers and phenotypes used by Olsen et al. [32] and Caicedo et al. [33]. Note that the p-values reported in these papers refer to tag-SNPs that distinguish major haplotypes, and thus cannot be directly compared with this distribution. See text for details.