Figure S4: Statistical properties of association studies.

(a) Proportion of rare variants which are causative

(b) Linkage disequilibrium between significant common markers and causal markers

(c) The number of unique causal markers associated with significant common markers

(d) Properties of causal markers associated with significant, common, neutral markers