

Frequency histogram of individuals along coastal transect I showing bimodality in quantitative traits at this spatial scale. The variable is canonical variate 1 (units in within-group standard deviations). Northwestern precursor individuals are the right mode, central precursor individuals are the left mode, without any overlap.