Supplemental Figure S3: Preprocessing of Illumina 450K data

The colors in the density plots correspond to different chips (microarrays), each run to contain 12 samples. The normalization procedures correct for both intra-array and inter-array differences.