

Figure S1. Probability density function of the mixture distribution (red) used to sample SNP effects and probability density function of a normal distribution with the same mean and variance (black).