Table S1: Cross-data set performance of breast cancer predictors trained on the individual and combined data sets (adjusted by ComBat) with respect to OS. Significant HR (p < 0.05) are shown in bold. The training sets are listed in the column header and the testing sets are indicated in the row header of the table. * indicates that the predictor was trained from all data sets except the testing set. NA stands for Not Available.