Fig 1. The Chapman-Kolmogorov test on the four Markov State Model phenotypes of the sampled ExMISA network. The relaxation curves and variance of a $1000\tau$ trajectory are shown in red. The relaxation curve predictions from the MSM transition matrix is shown in black. The total error $\sigma$ is measured as the 2-norm containing the differences between the two estimates of the relaxation curve.