Figure S1 – Combined activity scatterplots and posterior plots: Points show activity measurements for individual barcodes, while violins show the posterior on the mean activity level for each allele from the Bayesian model for (A) the detected functional test SNPs and (B) the Controls.