This remote sensing image data of Wenchuan earthquake was collected from the GoogleEarth (spatial resolution about 30m×30m) at different periods after the earthquake for 6 years (2008 to 2014).