S2 Figure. Influence of supplemental UV in the greenhouse on growth and photosynthesis of Setaria and Bracken. Setaria (left) and Bracken (right) were exposed to UV light, with twelve 30-min periods of UV per day for 70 days (UV), and without additional UV-light exposure (Control). The plants were grown at 20°C.