Fig S4. Longitudinal movement of ALT and AST in serum samples from healthy volunteers. The serum levels of ALT (A) and AST (B) plotted per individual over 6 samples collected over 5-10 weeks. For each plot, individual samples are connected by solid lines across the 40 healthy volunteers enrolled in the study. Dashed lines represent the upper limit of normal for ALT and AST.