S3 Toxic Material Disposal

The POC HIV VL cartridges contain guanidine thiocyanate: a toxic material used as a lysis reagent that must be disposed of using high-temperature incineration (850 degrees C). This process is expensive and may present extra costs for clinics lacking easy access to these specialized incinerators.[31]