

CORRECTION

Correction: Group-affirmation and trust in international relations: Evidence from Ukraine

The PLOS ONE Editors

This article [1] did not meet the journal's requirements for Registered Report Protocols; it was submitted to PLOS ONE before the study began, but participant recruitment and/or data collection began before the protocol was accepted for publication.

Therefore, this article should be considered by readers as a peer-reviewed Study Protocol rather than a Registered Report Protocol.

We regret that this issue was not identified prior to publication.
