(a)

(b)

S1 Fig. Best Linear Unbiased Predictors (BLUPs) for the random effects for the probability of receiving compensation. The x axes show the effect of living in a particular district (a) or village (b) in terms of the difference in probability of receiving compensation from the intercept. Error bars show the 95% confidence interval based on the conditional variance for each random effect. Village names are prefixed by district.