

S2 Fig. FIECO-AFL for station 116, from surface to 300 m. The FIECO-AFL is an indirect measure of (chlorophyll) pigment concentration at different depths and indicates the abundance of photosynthetic microorganisms in the water column.

