

S1 Photo. Red deer carcass undergoing decomposition, ca. 1.5 months after death. The black larvae belong mostly to Thanatophilus rugosus (Coleoptera: Silphidae).